Conferences

" This conference was filled with spirit anointed preaching and sensitive prophetic ministry that brought individuals to their knees, with tears rolling down their cheeks, God was in the house and we were blessed! "

It's Time International Women's Conference

It's Time International Women's Conference was launched in New York with the mandate to help women ascend to another level in their walk with God. It's an annual event that brings together dynamic and powerful speakers. You will hear their inspiring yet candid and practical insights on how to rise above barriers that often come to delay, divert or destroy your destiny in Christ. Our aim is to empower individuals to triumph over every one of them.

This is a conference for those who "hear destiny's call" and know "It's Time to step out and move upward!"

As one past attendee said:

" It's Time is more than a conference (meet, eat and greet retreat), it's an experience! The speakers were transparent and powerful. The information given is applicable to all parts of who you are—in the church, workplace, etc. "

The conference will help you to answer questions like:

1. What have you been putting off doing?
2. What dreams do you have that are yet to be realised?
3. What excuses are you telling yourself that keep you from fulfilling them?
4. What steps can you take to get 'unstuck'?

When leaders gather together to sharpen each other through testimonials, leadership development and Biblical principles, it can literally accelerate you in your leadership role and transform your own life.

" I have been so refreshed and inspired - the worship, the testimonies, the transparency of the leaders and receiving such a real and relevant word, spoke to my heart as a leader. I am leaving ignited and ready for the next season! "

" My first experience of Reverend Jacqueline Peart and her ministry was at a women's retreat. I remember hearing her say "don't go back home the same way you came". I sat there and thought to myself that the weekend had been good but not that good to make me go home differently. I was fine (who an earth told me to think that! :-)

Thank goodness for the love of God, who from that moment on began to continuously prod me gently until I realised that I wasn't "fine" because my marriage had fallen apart, I wasn't "fine" because I felt completely worthless and useless. I wasn't "fine" because I had suddenly lost my dad a few months earlier and I most definitely wasn't "fine" because in the midst of all this, I had three children that I needed to take care of. The truth of the matter was, my heart and everything about me was broken. I was broken into so many pieces, that I didn't even know which ones belonged to me, or who I was anymore.

God used Jacqueline Peart International Ministries to open up my heart and pour in the word of God which I can honestly say, saved my life! My creator and Heavenly Father has reset the foundations of my soul with His love and continues to restore me to who I am in Christ, not who people say I should be, not what society or the media would have me believe I should look like, but who God says

I am. Hallelujah!!!!

(Isaiah 55:11 NKJV)

So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth;

It shall not return to Me void,

But it shall accomplish what I please,

*And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it " Debbie
